Payapa Being Reviewed.

You can apply this strategy that I'm about to show you in any currency pair of your choice, but you can enjoy mostly on the USD based currency i.e USDZAR, USDCAD, USDCHF, USDJPY... but remember you can use it in every currency pair of your choice. Today I'm about to show you some secrets of forex.

The strategy that I'm sharing we will be applying it mostly in 15 minutes and 1 hr charts, we all know that in forex trading there are 9 different charts.

All these 9 charts were put to cause confusion. Only two charts that are for trading, which is 15min and 1hr charts. For you to be profitable you need to focus in these timeframe. And the 15 minutes is the important chart in this game of forex.

What is USDVMJ Strategy?

Is a sentimental analyzing method, I know most people they know only about fundamentals and technical analysis. Today I'm introducing you into another way of analyzing which is sentimental way that you will only find at VMJ forex education.

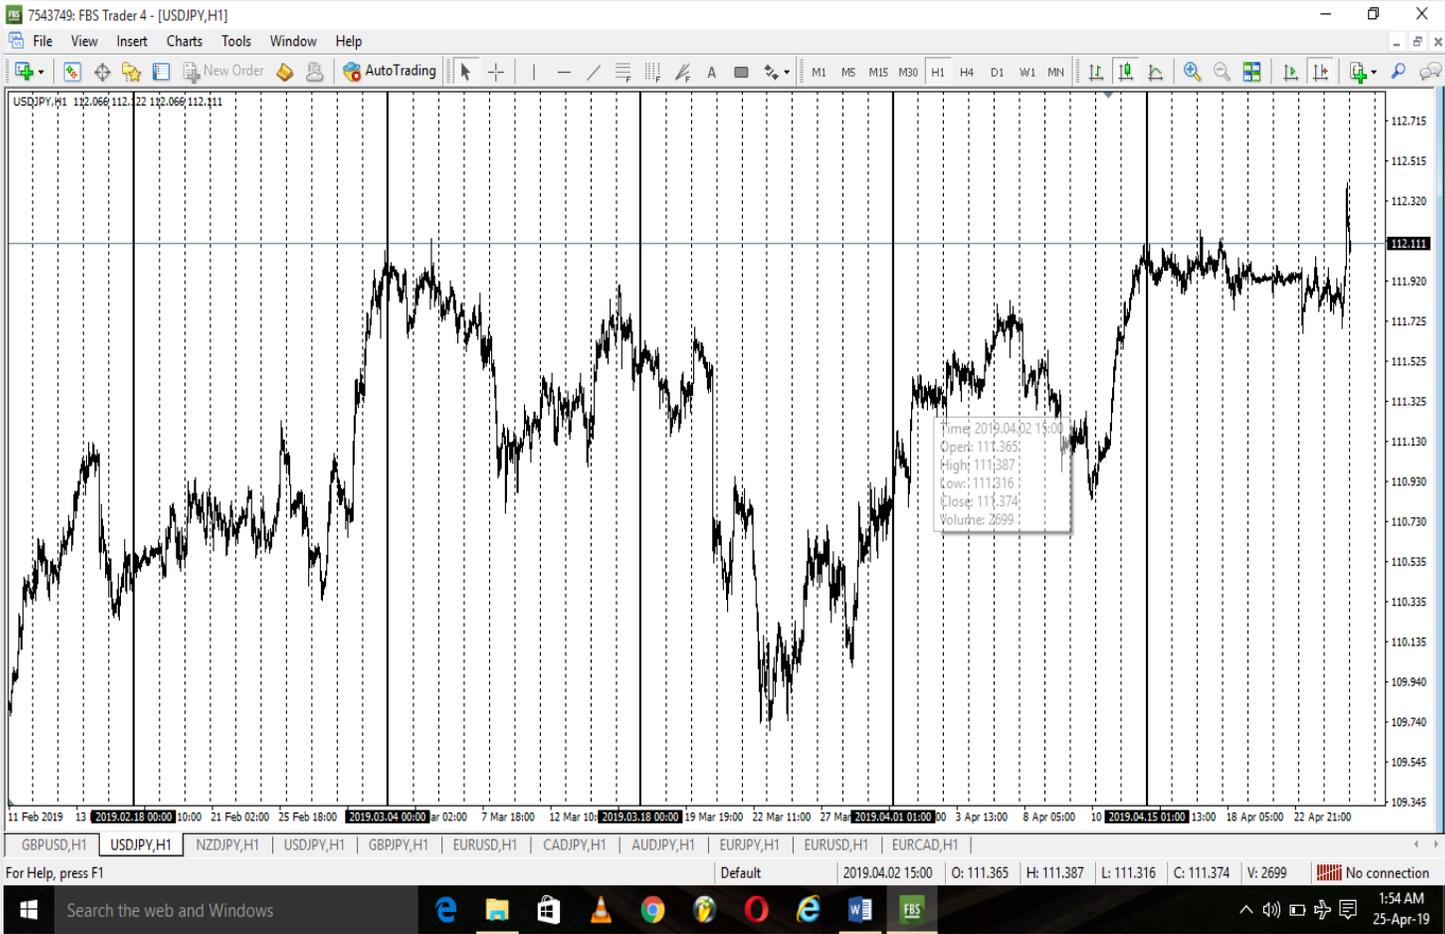

What is this sentimental analysis

First of all. We analyze during the weekends (Saturday and Sunday) and during the week we only place trades. We only analyze on the weekend because that is when the market is not active, When you are applying this strategy you are trying to predict what gonna happen in the next coming 5 days. In order for you to able to predict these coming days you need to understand what was happening in 10 previous days.

Payapa/ Market marker Setup is a combination of stochastic indicator and technical setup of market within a period of 10 days. This combination makes it possible to identify sell zones and buy zones of the market makers.

How to setup Payapa

1. Use 1HR TF (Make sure the chart is condensed)
2. Use vertical line to mark the market in the past ten days.
3. Use horizontal to mark the high/low and second high/low.
4. Indicator COMMODITY CHANNEL INDEX CCI (PERIOD 2200) and RSI (period 1)
5. If possible apply a confirmation trendline on your chart
6. Moving Average indicator (RED period 15,Simple) (BLUE period 5,Exp)
7. Use Fibonacci to identify Minor zones

STEP 1

Payapa Strategy

First of all, We analyze during the weekends (Saturday and Sunday) and during the week we only place trades.

Step 1:

If today is 27th/28th October 2018 and you want to predict the market movement for next 5 days. You need to calculate 10 days backwards excluding weekends.

Step 2:

Now Open metatrader 4 and pick any pair to analyse..

Place the vertical line at 15th October 00:00 (the time when the market started)

Open your Metatrader platform, go to 1hr chart press (ctrl and Y) you will see day breaking line pop out. we call them Period/day separator.

STEP 2

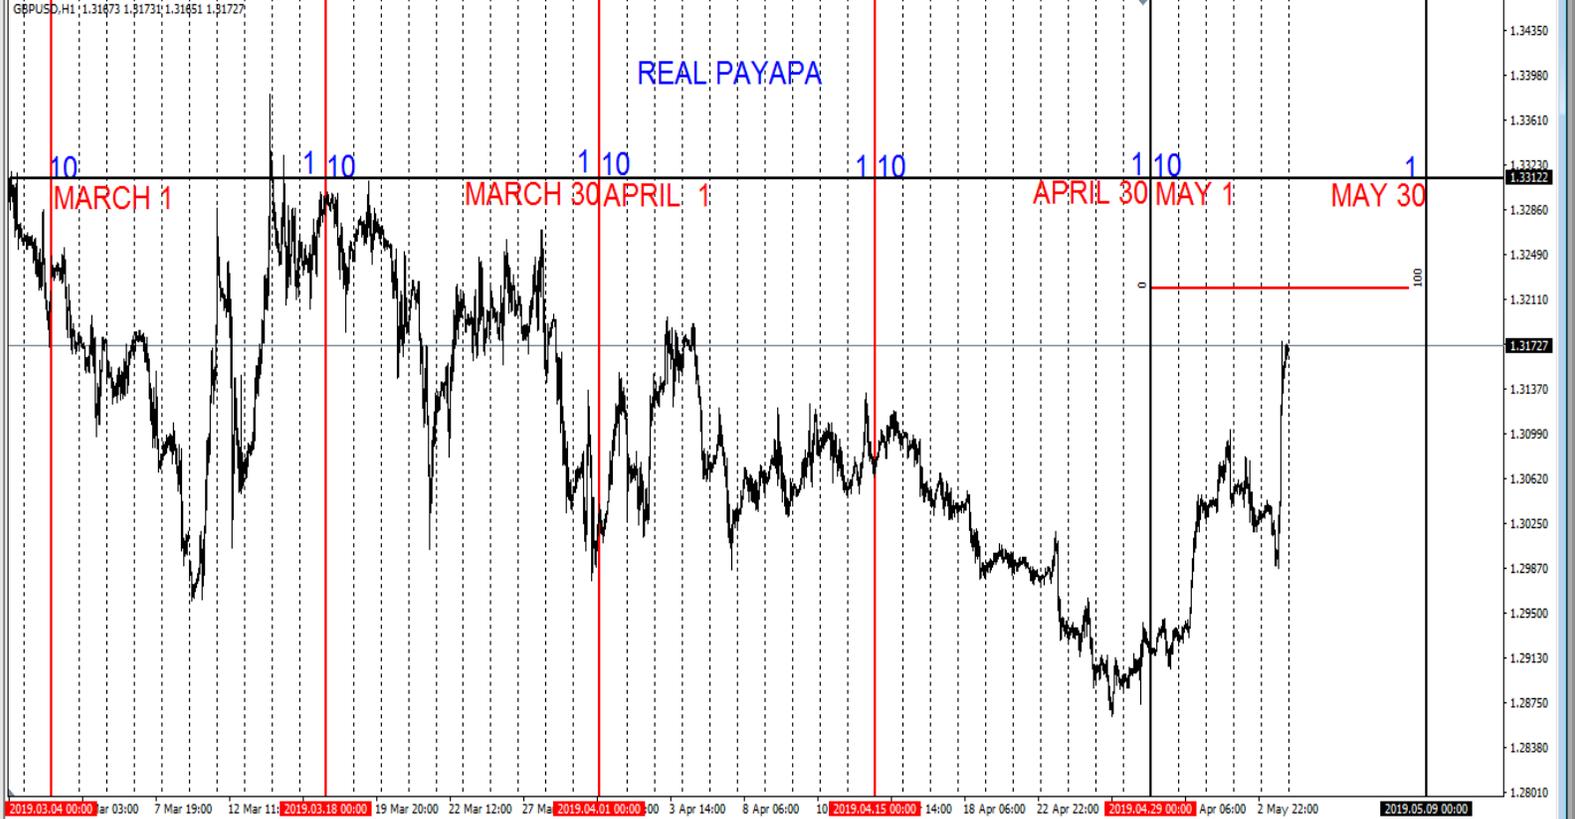

If today is 9 March 2019 and you want to predict the market movement for next 5/10 days. You need to calculate 10 days backwards excluding weekends, fortunately it easy because your chart doesn't have weekends.

Place the vertical line at 00:00 (the time when the market started.)

Mark the all time high and all time low for that period (10 days) using horizontal line.

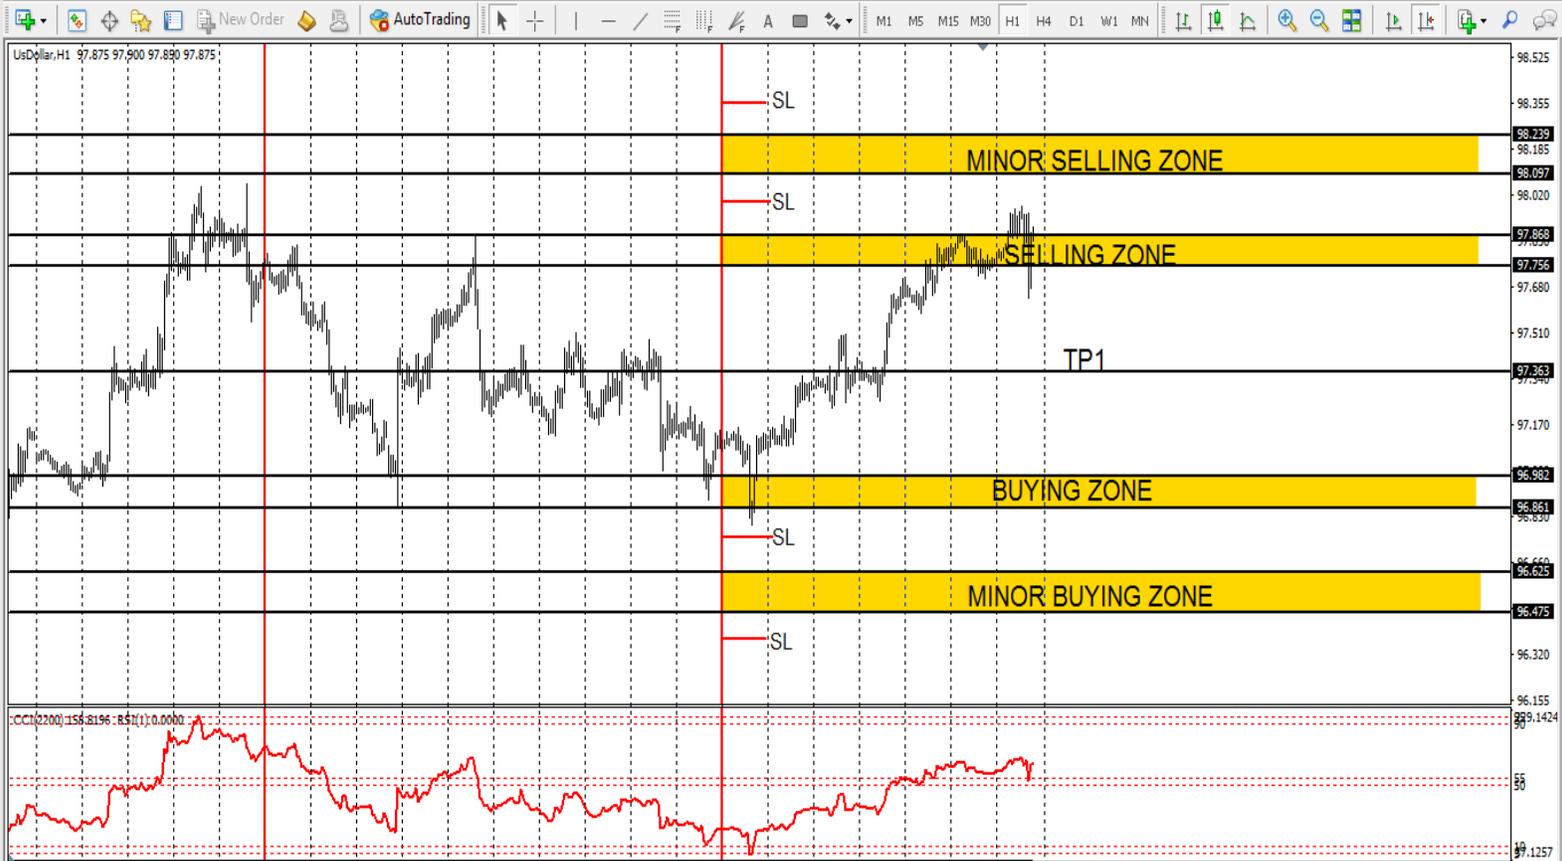

Now you need to determine the next immediate level resistance or support or the level where there is a lot of activity, means the place where there is a lot of rejections.

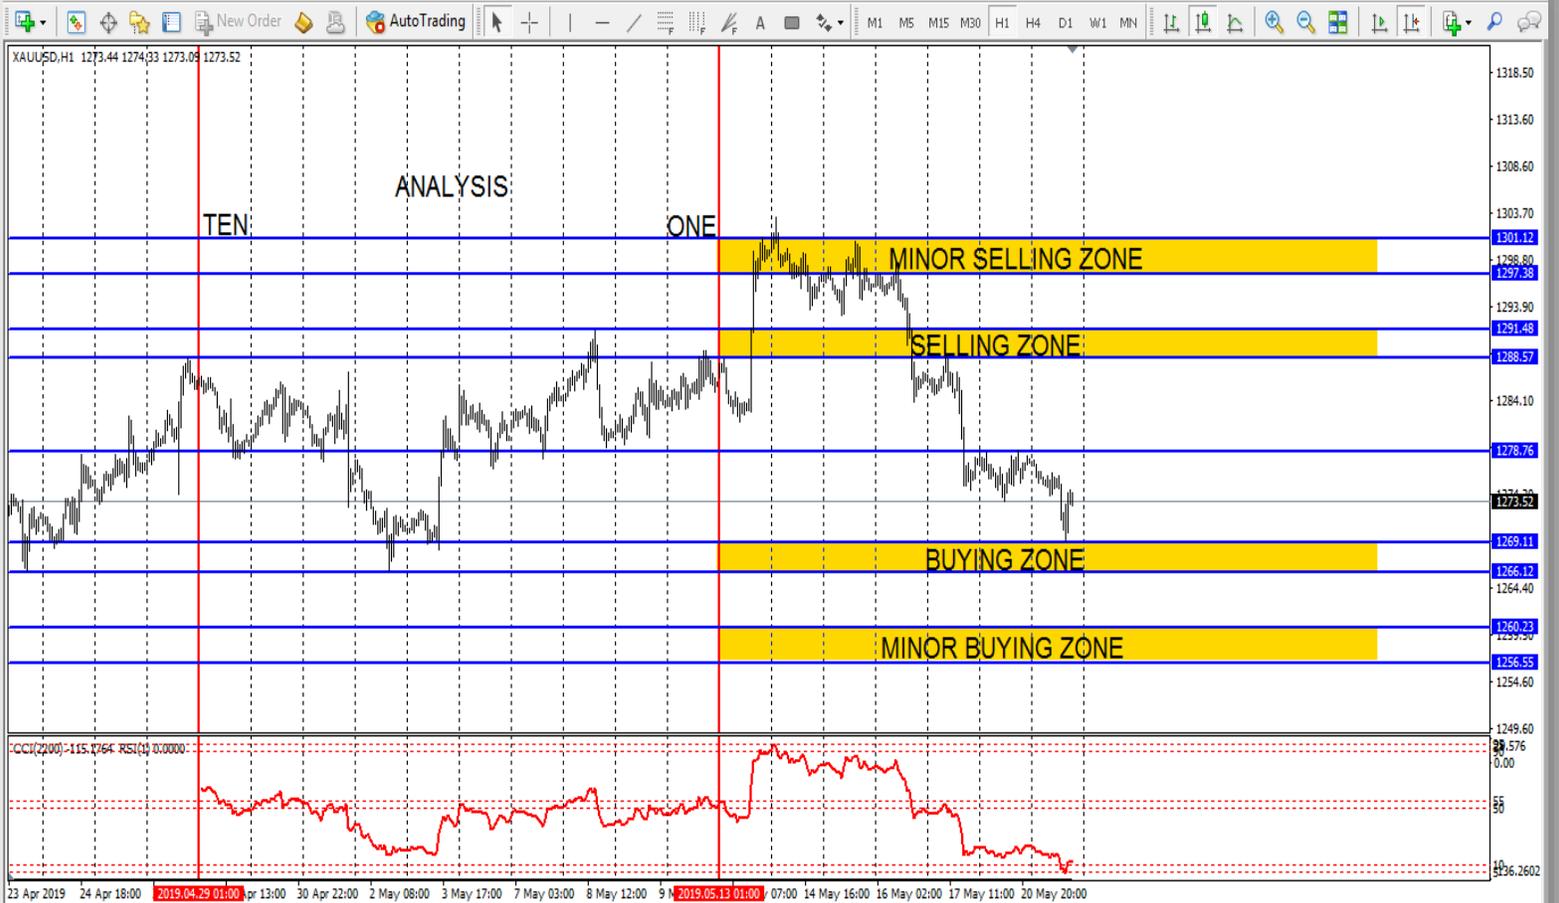

There we had created our zones which are known as Payapa buy zone and Payapa Sell zone. When the Market get into one of our zones don't just sell or buy wait for candles to start rejecting and then take your trades,make sure you also check your Calendar for any news events

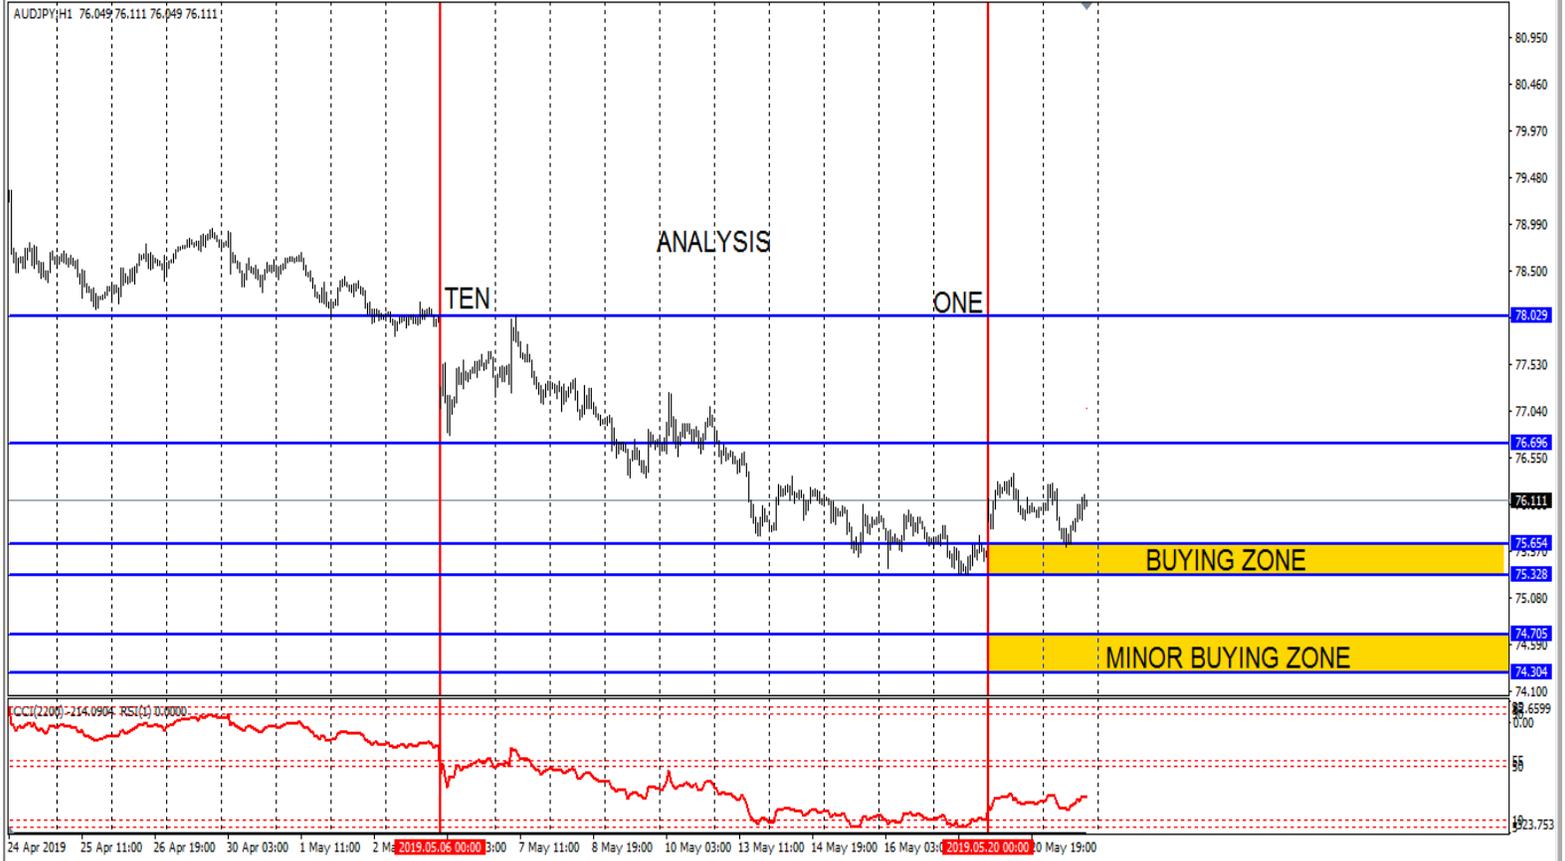

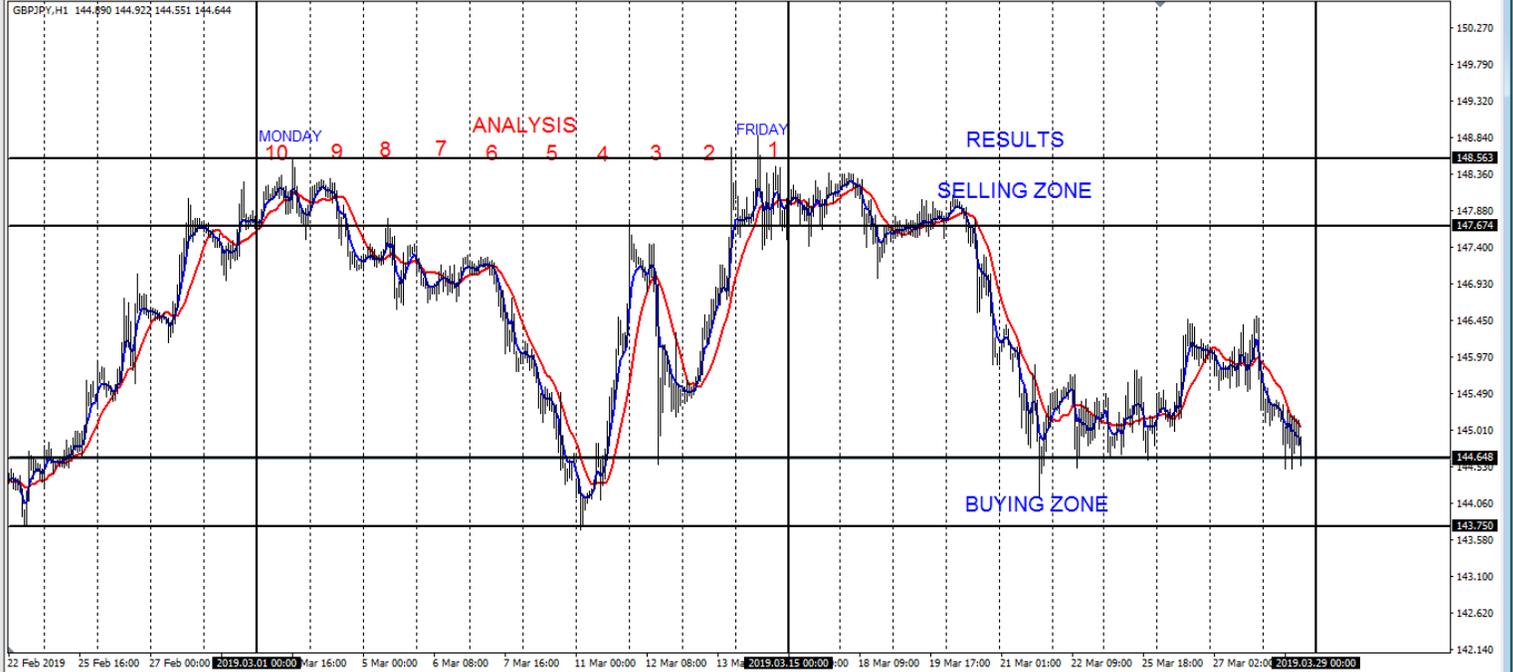

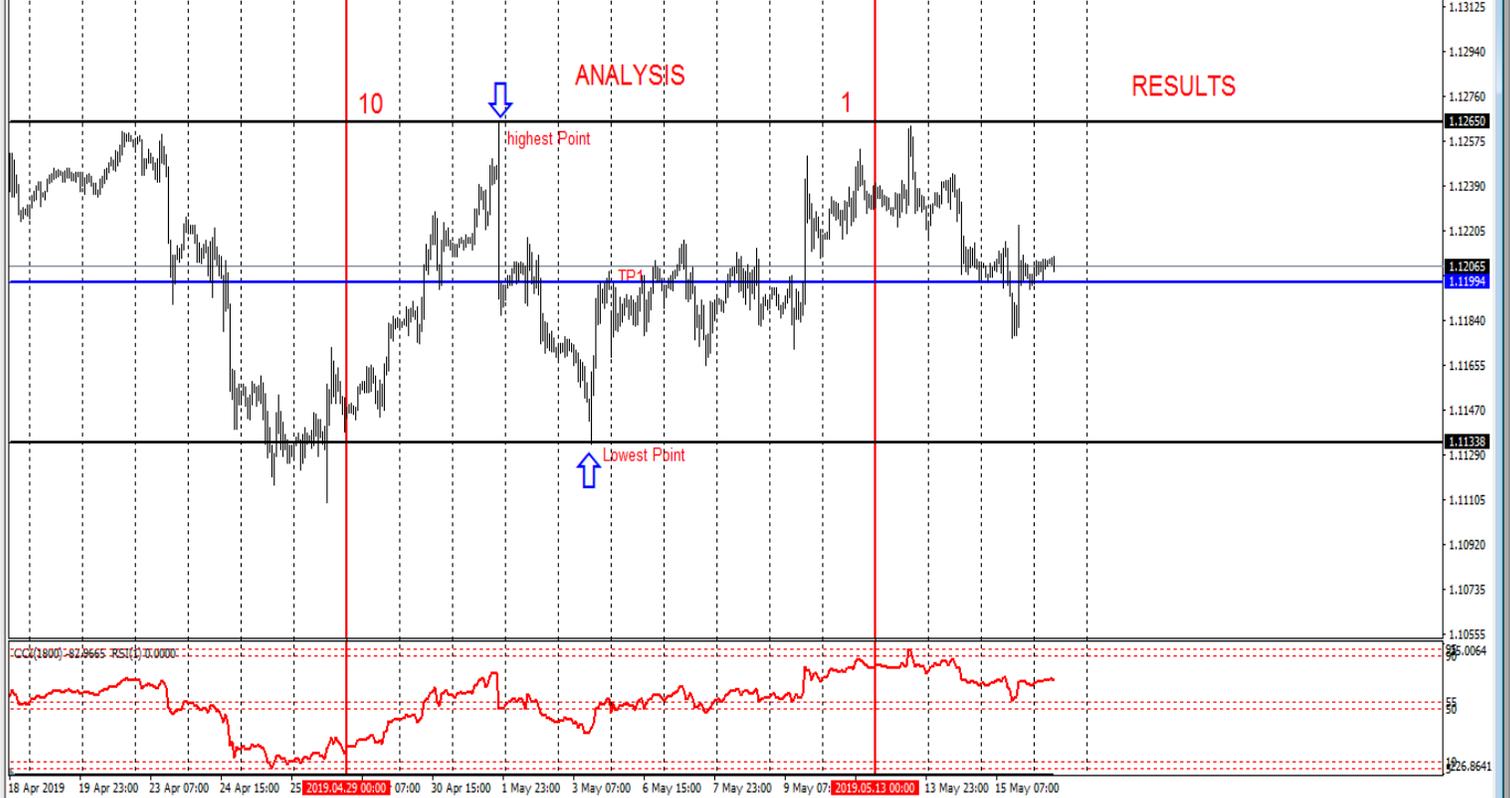

WHAT TO DO WHEN THE MARKET DECIDE TO BREAK OUR ZONES?

Let say you analyse your chart according to the rules of the strategy and then the market decide to break your zones what to do?, in this chapter I will show you how to analyse.

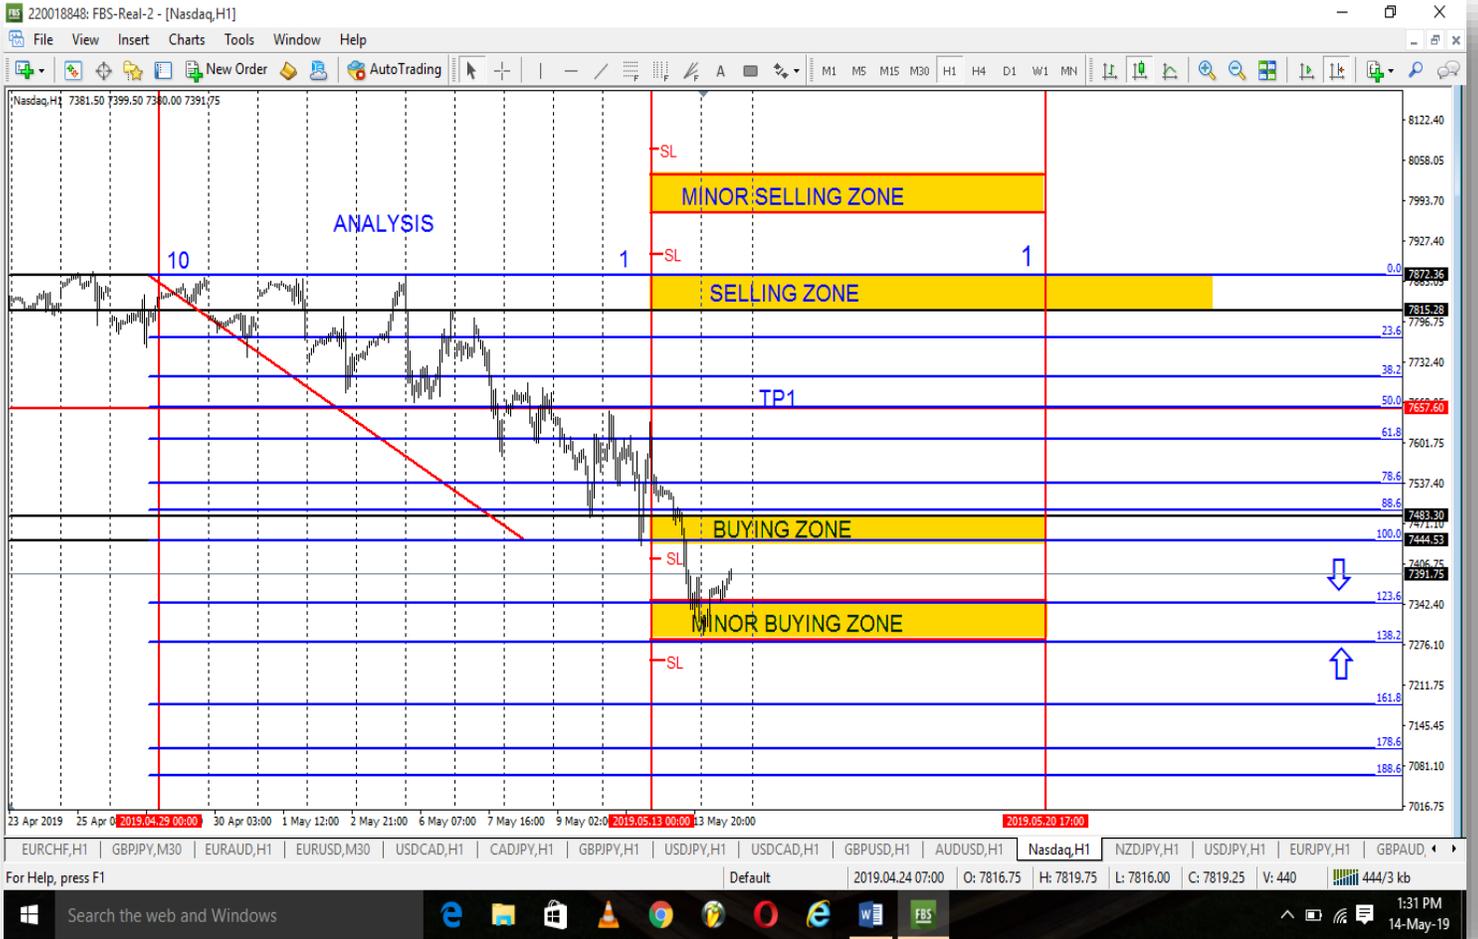

So after you done with identifying your lowest or highest point you will then. Apply fibonacci how? I will show you. By using Fibonacci you are now creating a new buying Zone. Which in the market term called discount Zone/Minor zone. This zone should always be created between 123,6 – 138,2 level.
