Trader's Checklist – Steps to Trading Success

Introduction

Would you like to become a trader? At www.YourTradingCoach.com, we don't believe this is possible through just purchasing an ebook or completing a weekend seminar. The road to trading success is a long, hard, winding road, with many potholes, false turns and dead-ends. Sorry, but that's a fact. There is no Holy-Grail trading solution.

Just as peak performance in sport requires years of exposure to the sport, trading success comes from years of exposure to the markets, allowing constant improvement in the trader's ability to read changes in market sentiment and to react without fear.

Disciplined application of the following steps will get you off to a great start to becoming a trader. Please print it out and get started from step one immediately. And as you travel along this long journey to profitability, don't forget to enjoy the process and marvel at the complexity of the challenge and the personal psychological insights that you WILL make along the way.

Cheers,

Lance Beggs

34	Commence trading with the smallest possible position size. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Your goal is to consistently execute quality trades in accordance with your plan, not to make money. ✓ Remember, success comes from the disciplined and consistent application of a positive expectancy trading strategy, with proper application of risk management, money management, business management, personal development and trading psychology. ✓ Success comes from continued exposure to the markets and developing an intuitive feel for market sentiment. ✓ Success comes from unlearning the fear based decision making processes that were developed through your pre-trading life. As you continue to act in accordance with your trading plan, and eventually realize that the market cannot hurt you, your confidence will naturally build. You will learn to react to your system instinctively, without fear. 	<input type="checkbox"/>
35	Ensure ongoing performance tracking and review. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Document all trades in your trading journal. ✓ Document your personal performance in your trading journal. ✓ Conduct regular reviews of your strategy and yourself, to identify areas of strength and weakness. 	<input type="checkbox"/>
36	Achieve consistency in implementing your trading plan <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Ensuring you NEVER allow your risk to exceed pre-planned limits. 	<input type="checkbox"/>
37	Achieve breakeven consistency. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Reward yourself – breakeven is an excellent result. 	<input type="checkbox"/>
38	Increase position size gradually. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Prove consistent success at each level, in application of the trading plan and profitability, before any further increase in position size. ✓ Gradually increase up to the maximum risk allowable for your capital base. 	<input type="checkbox"/>

39	Continue trading: <ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ Your goal continues to be executing quality trades in accordance with your plan, not to make money. Do this and the money will follow.✓ Continue with your ongoing performance tracking and review process. Never stop learning.✓ Commit to ongoing education and constant improvement.	<input type="checkbox"/>
40	Well done – you're a trader!	<input type="checkbox"/>
